

Rodeo- and Farm-Themed Adaptive Special Interest Program

in conjunction with

Hosted by

ROOTS N' BOOTS Queen Creek

This unique program shares the rural heritage of Queen Creek in two interactive events designed specifically for individuals with physical, mental, emotional or social challenges. Participants will have the opportunity to take part in rodeo- and farm-themed activities that are presented in a safe and supportive environment. Snacks and drinks will be provided.

LOCATION: Library Recreation Annex

21802 S Ellsworth Rd, Queen Creek

REGISTRATION: Required for each event
Online at www.queen creek.org/departments/parks-recreation/recreation-programs

In Person at the Library Recreation Annex
21802 S Ellsworth Rd, Queen Creek

Price: FREE

■ RODEO THEME

Thursday, February 7

6:00- 7:30 p.m.

Activities will include, but are not limited to, throwing a lasso and roping a plastic steer, making stick horses out of pool noodles and then "riding" them around barrels, as well as a balloon round-up.

■ FARM THEME

Thursday, April 11

6:00 - 7:30 p.m.

Weather permitting, this event will be held outdoors. Activities will include, but are not limited to, cornhole, horseshoes, and gold panning, as well as bean bag and tin can tosses.

For further information contact:

Myrna Flores at horseqc4h@gmail.com

